Discoveries: Realities of Duress

- Mobility has many sides: from displacement to emotions to simple movements
- Connectivity has a (long) history; change is in connectivity
- Duress and memory/forgetting; does duress as concept 'work'?
- 'Information' is key in the interrelations
- Formation of new groups and borders (socio-political relations)

Change in the field:

- 'Radicalisation'
- Identity dynamics: political and social change

The conference

- Exchange with other colleagues
- Reflection
- Each panel represents an element of the programme
- Hope: future perspectives emerge
